What did you particularly like about the workshop?

1. When individual representatives from different WIA tribal programs gave their problems in working to serve their communities. Learning new techniques to work out problem solving.
2. Excellent information on effective coaching.
3. Everyone talked about issues we all are having with participants.
4. Participation encouraged. Stories, struggles, barriers and shared by helping providers from WIA, TANF, tribal, etc.
5. Hearing the difficulties I face as a Counselor are universal.
6. Don't know because not enough time to get into any subjects.
7. The interaction with the group.
8. Everyone sharing. All have common ground in relating to our program and participants.
9. Reinforcing connecting with the participant on a more intimate level.

Comments:

1. Excellent presenter who was very compassionate.
2. Most of the workshop time was spent by sharing information. The presenter was unable to focus on the topic and complete the presentation. The nice thing is that the presenter will e-mail the presentation.
3. Most of the workshop time devoted to introductions about 10-5 minutes was devoted to workshop. This is too much time for introductions!
4. I arrived at the workshop late. Had to stand in line to vote. Allow more actual time for workshop. This is a very good workshop, but the General Assembly limited the time on the workshop.
5. Need more information.
6. Needed more time!
7. Needed to shorten introduction by participants so there would be enough time to complete presentation.
8. Excellent on having the audience state problems with clients and programs.
9. I liked hearing the ideas from others that they have used with their clients.

10. Spent one hour on participant introductions. No time for topic and information sharing.
11. Too much time spent on introductions and talking about your individual problems. This leaves very little time to address the solutions.
12. Workshop started late and the introductions took up too much time.
13. Need more time allowed for the workshop.
14. Again, this presenter cost too much time with introductions. I think a name, title and organization would suffice. The workshop didn't get started until 11:49 a.m. and began when? Then we rushed. Her program probably has a lot of money to do what they do.
