What did you particularly like about the workshop?

1. The open communication about tribes.
2. All.
3. I missed part of the workshop, but what I heard I enjoyed. It was very informational.
4. The workshop was more law driven. I was expecting a workshop on how to be a better supervisor and the tools needed.
5. Discussion and feedback.
6. Culturally paralleled, interesting, covered more than one topic thoroughly and good participation.
7. Would like to have handouts to write notes to elaborate on slides. Oops! I liked how knowledgeable the presenter was.
8. Speaker very knowledgeable.
9. How he clearly explained each issue and topic on how he helped answer specific questions related to tribes, non-profits and employers in general.
10. Shared opinions and open comments were welcomed. Informal yet informative!
11. The workshop was not what I expected, but it turned out very well.
12. Workshop very thorough.
13. Tribal preference.
14. Great information on sovereignty.
15. This was a very informative workshop.
16. Legal terminology.
17. Interaction with tribal members.
18. Speaker's knowledge on topic.
19. Questions from the audience.
20. Knowledge of law associated with the workshop.

Comments:

1. Seemed to be more on human resource law with less on supervisor and manager in general.
2. Good.
3. It seemed to apply to tribal more than urban, but it was very interesting.

4. Good job!
5. Rules of Indian Preference Act of 1964 were not defined to show differences between tribal and urban entities.
6. Expected different information.
7. Thanks to presenter and the lesson I learned.
8. Thank you!
9. Great presenter. Should think about being a professor because he explains things clearly and with detail.
10. Did not realize workshop was for tribal employers. I selected wrong workshop, but I still enjoyed the workshop.
11. Excellent job!
12. Very interesting.
